

An innovative and future-focussed accounting firm located in Sydney's iconic Bondi Junction, Rosenfeld Kant provides leadership, experience and advice in accounting, tax and business advisory services.

About Us

Rosenfeld Kant was founded in 1977 by Chartered Accountants Alf Kant and Les Rosenfeld. Together they created a legacy of quality service and long-standing genuine relationships.

More recently, we have earned our position in the Australian Financial Review's Top 100 Accounting Firms in Australia through our unwavering commitment to professional excellence and outstanding customer care for clients, some of whom have continued with us since 1977.

Today, Gary Williams and Raul Valois, who became partners in 1994, and Elias Makris who became a partner in 2006, uphold the vision of the founders.

Gary has exceptional tax, audit and accounting expertise and, specialised knowledge in Australian film, television and media funding advice and audit.

Raul has expertise in intricate tax, accounting, assurance and business advisory matters as well as specialised skills in predictive modelling, business optimisation, structuring and governance.

Elias provides high calibre tax, accounting and business advisory services which include valuation and strategic planning to de-risk a business, grow, increase profit, improve cash flow and prepare for succession.

About You

Our clients are professionals, small and medium-sized businesses as well as very large family-owned enterprises. Many of which operate in the legal and medical fields, property development, manufacturing, retail and infrastructure.

In addition to family-owned and closely-held SMEs, our diverse client portfolio includes high-wealth individuals and multi-generational family groups who manage sophisticated operations or hold extensive property and investment asset portfolios.

As your accountants and business advisors, we help you to manage your affairs and maximise the value of your business which, in turn, enhance your personal prosperity.

Our Values

Our service delivery approach, for both business owners and individuals, integrates business and personal financial affairs while supporting decision making for the purpose of enhancing overall financial success. Our endeavours are underpinned by our three core values:

Respect: We value genuine, mutually trusting and enduring relationships and recognise the importance of developing a deep understanding of your financial position and requirements in order to deliver the best possible advice and support.

Commitment: We are dedicated to ensuring your business and accounting needs are strategically planned and aligned with your long-term goals for both enhancing business value and your personal prosperity.

Inclusiveness: We have assembled a distinguished multi-cultural team of talent to assist you. Our accountants and long-standing senior professionals are recognised for their financial and business leadership. Our flat business structure both acknowledges and welcomes contributions from our professional and support team members towards continual self-improvement and, importantly, for achieving the optimal outcomes for you.

Our Services

Rosenfeld Kant offers a comprehensive range of tax, accounting, SMSF advice and business advisory services along with specialisations in corporate secretarial, audit and assurance as well as film and media services.

Tax Planning & Compliance

Completed in advance of the end of financial year, tax planning is an important precursor to tax reporting that aims to review your financial performance, forecast your annual income and identify actions that may need to be implemented to minimise your tax liability. Our tax compliance service strives to take the heavy lifting out of the often-complex nature of wide-ranging tax reporting obligations.

Accounting & Financial Management

We provide comprehensive and valuable accounting advice for effectively managing cash flow, business growth and for establishing the correct business structures that both protect assets and minimise tax. Our financial reporting services include preparing reports as frequently as required to enable effective business management and sound decision making.

Business Advice

Our business advisory services provide personalised, strategic advice and planning with a focus on de-risking your business, growth, increasing profit, improving cash flow and preparing you and your business for succession.

SMSF Advice

Rosenfeld Kant SMSF Advisors (ASIC AR 1250846) is a specialised and licensed division of Rosenfeld Kant, established in 2017 to provide professional support for SMSF trustees. Our services include establishing and wrapping up SMSFs, annual accounts, taxation reporting and audit, general taxation and compliance advice, investment reporting, contribution strategies, retirement income streams and specialist advice in matters of death and divorce.

Our Specialisations

Corporate Secretarial: We are pro active and closely focused on the regulatory framework that applies to your organisation, allowing more time for you to focus on your business operation.

Audit and Assurance: Our audit and corporate assurance services comprehensively investigate your financial information and the reliability of your financial processes and procedures.

Film: Our film services division was established to consolidate our growing reputation as go-to film audit specialist. With more than two decades of successful film audit experience, we have conducted more than 400 film audits.

Memberships

As members of Geneva Group International (GGI), a leading global alliance of independent professionals and the sixth largest accounting concern in the world, we enhance our capacity for financial insight through collaboration with an international network of financial and legal experts.

We are Chartered Accountants, who have been recognised by the Australian Financial Review as among the Australia's Top 100 Accounting Firms.

For more information about our services and how we may assist you, please contact us:

The information (including taxation) contained within this document is of a general nature only and neither represents nor is intended to be personal advice on any particular matter. Rosenfeld Kant strongly suggest that no person should act specifically on the basis of the information in this document, but should obtain appropriate professional advice based on their own personal circumstances.